

DEED OF APPOINTMENT (ABSOLUTE)

Introduction

For use with the following trust forms provided by Royal London (or the divisions known as Bright Grey and Scottish Provident):

Royal London Gift Trust
Royal London Gift Trust (Jointly owned – survivor to benefit)
Scottish Provident Flexible Gift Trust
Scottish Provident Gift Trust
Scottish Provident Gift Trust (Joint Life, first event).

You can use this deed to appoint that the plan proceeds in the trust are no longer to be held for the named beneficiary. Instead, they are to be held for specific beneficiaries within the wider group of discretionary beneficiaries, as determined by the trustees after a claim has been paid. The plan proceeds can then be distributed to the chosen discretionary beneficiaries.

Notes on completion

This deed is provided strictly as a draft for the consideration of your legal advisers. Royal London cannot accept any responsibility for loss of any nature caused by the use, unchanged or otherwise, of this deed. Any guidance given on completion of the deed is given on the basis that having discussed the deed with your legal advisers it is used unchanged.

If you make any changes, you should sign and date these before the deed is completed. Please do not use correction fluid if changes are to be made. No changes can be made once the deed has been completed. Please complete the deed in block capitals.

All notes are for guidance only and do not form part of the deed.
